The Demolition Summit was launched 2009. This year's event will take place on November 5, 2010 at the Hotel Okura in Amsterdam, one of the leading hotels in the city.

The Summit – which is expected to attract more than 400 people from leading contractors and suppliers – will include a top-level conference and the second Demolition Awards gala dinner.

The whole event will be open to all demolition companies and relevant manufacturers and suppliers.

It will open with a networking event and drinks reception on the evening of November 4, will continue the next day with a conference featuring some of the world's top demolition experts before concluding on the evening of November 5 with the Demolition Awards gala dinner.

The conference will focus on key subjects for demolition contractors, including:

- A detailed look at the economic health of the industry
- Cutting-edge project case studies
- The latest innovations
- Effective collaboration between manufacturers and contractors
